

PRIDE Industries Scholarship for Individuals with Disabilities Sierra College, Northern CA

Background: PRIDE Industries is a not-for-profit organization delivering manufacturing and service solutions to businesses and government agencies nationwide, while creating meaningful jobs for people with disabilities. PRIDE is headquartered in Roseville, CA and is proud to provide this scholarship at nearby Sierra College for qualified individuals with disabilities.

Scholarship Title: PRIDE Industries Scholarship for Individuals with Disabilities.

Purpose: This scholarship was established by PRIDE Industries to help Sierra College students with disabilities, and with financial need, pay for tuition and/or books.

Application & Eligibility Criteria:

- Student must be enrolled at the Sierra College
- Student must have completed a FAFSA application
- Student must maintain a GPA of 2.5 or higher
- Student must have a demonstrated disability, as confirmed by Sierra College Disabled Student Programs & Services.
- Preference will be given to those with financial need.

Amount: $2,500 annually for two $1,250 scholarships. Scholarship recipients are eligible to re-apply annually, if all eligibility requirements continue to be met. Award decisions are made at the sole discretion of the Scholarship Committee.

How to apply: This scholarship was created through Sierra College Foundation. Eligible students at Sierra College are encouraged to apply by following the links below.

Scholarship Application Process Instructions
Scholarship Details

Questions? For more information about PRIDE Industries please visit: www.prideindustries.com or email info@prideindustries.com.

For more information about Sierra College please visit: <http://www.sierracollege.edu/index.html>.